A FUNEREAL AFFAIR

WAS M'NAGNY'S RENOMINATION FOR CONGRESS AT FORT WAYNE.

Stalwart Democrats Are Against Him -Lew Wanner, of South Bend. Takes Conn's Cast-Off Honors.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 11. - The Democratic convention held here to-day for nominating a congressional candidate from the Twelfth district was a total failure in enthusiasm and attendance. At no time were over 250 people all told, delegates and spectators, in the hall. The delegates should have numbered 136, but not more than sixty responded, and those that were not in their seats did not take the trouble to send proxies. When Chairman Judge Zollars called the roll of townships he grew exceedingly nervous as township after township failed to respond. He became confused and neglected to call several townships until corrected by delegate Judge Dawson. For the first time in the history of Allen county the Democracy failed to have an interesting convention, and never before did whole townships fail to send representatives. The cause of this luke-warmness is that the Democrats of the district are not going to vote that ticket this fall, for many of them will wander off to the Populists if they do not vote the Republican ticket. Another reason is that Congressman McNagny made so many promises and pledges to prominent leaders of his party in this district which he failed to faifill that sore spots exist in every township. Men who for years have taken in every convention without exception were conspicuous by their

Before any action could be taken by the convention or any business transacted, Chairman Zollars said: "Congressman Mc-Nagny, whose name will come before you for renomination will now address you," intimating that McNagny is the man, and no one else will do. Amid no unusual burst of applause Congressman McNagny walked to the chairman's desk and unrolled a type-written speech. He began to read detailing the actions of the last Congress and telling of the billion of dollars spent by the last Republican Congress. He spoke for over an hour and a half and wound up by a frantic appeal for renomination, saying the Democratic party often nominated bad men, but it is the duty of Democrats to vote for them and thus hold the party together, and begged them if any bad men were on the ticket to vote for them this year if not in the future.

His speech was tiresome and without point. He appealed to his hearers not to desert the party and go to the Populists; that the Democratic sky was brightening, and as business would show a great revival before November, there was yet a good chance to save the party. There was but little applause and that came from the many postmasters in attendance.

As it is the time-honored custom to give candidates two terms from this district, this saved McNagny and gave him the nomination for the second term. It would have been an easy matter for any aspirant to have taken the honors away from him, but Allen county wants to name the man next time, so it supported McNagny. He is from Whitely county, and when his term is out it comes to Allen county. Mc-Nagny's defeat might have again thrown it out of Allen county for two terms.

Two of the delegates who supported him to-day declared to your correspondent that they would vote for Leighty, the Republican candidate. When the call for nominations came there was no response for nearly a minute, and the silence was painful, when delegate Griebel arose, after being beckoned by Chairman Zollars, and simply said in a low voice: "I nominate McNagny," and seated himself. Nearly a minute elapsed before the nomination was seconded and the suspense was agonizing and funereal to McNagny's friends, who feared that there would be no second to the nomination. An attempt was then made by Allen county to make it unani-mous, but this was objected to by De Kalb. Steuben and Noble counties. The postmasters were frantic with rage: It took a vote of all the counties to decide to make the nomination unanimous, and there were objecting votes in the roll call of each county. The hitch in the bosses' cut-and-dried arrangements caused a fever of excitement and the McNagny grooms were immersed in gloom at the aspect. They see defection in every county and their forces bespeak anything but pleasureable results for their candidate. This is the first time a Democratic candidate for Congress here failed to get the nomination by acclamation. Stalwart Democrats are against him and McNagny will never be

SECOND-CHOICE WANNER.

The Man in the Thirteenth to Take

Conn's Cast-Off Honors. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept 11 .- The Democrats of the Thirteenth congressional district held a special convention in Turner Ha!! this afternoon to select a candidate in place of Hon. Charles Girard Conn. of Elkhart, who refused the nomination tendered him last June at Plymouth because he differed on certain matters with his party. The convention was called to order by District Chairman Conrad, of Warsaw. He refused to act as permanent chairman, and Col. R. M. Johnson, of Elkhart, was chosen, with John B. Faulkner, of the Michigan City Dispatch, as secretary. A call of counties brought out the names of L. B. Bernethy, Starke county; B. F. Shively, South Bend; Martin T. Kreuger, Michigan City, and Lew Wanner, of Goshen. Mr. Shively withdrew, after which a banner in his honor was kicked full of holes. The matter finally dwindled to Wanner and Bernethy, and when Bernethy's admirers saw he was receiving no votes they withdrew his name. Wanner was then nominated.

A Rank Demagogue.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GOSHEN, Ind., Sept. 11.-The nomination at South Bend, this afternoon, of Hon. Lew Wanner, of this city, as the Democratic candidate for Congress for the Thirteenth congressional district, is a peculiarly happy one from a Republican standpoint. Mr. Wanner is a radical of the most pronounced free-trade type, an utterance of his at this year's Democratic county convention illustrating the extremely partisan and anarchial views held by him on political questions. In this speech he openly accused several manufacturers of this city of having closed their shops for the sole purpose of making political capital, saying they were "starving their employes into voting their Republican ticket." The speech, which proclaimed Mr. Wanner a demagogue of a dangerous type created much excitement in this city and county, disgusted the conservative element which will be found, irrespective of party, presenting a solid front against him next in Madison County.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind. Sept. 11.-Hon. Chas. L. Henry closed his third meeting in a remarkable series in this county to-night, speaking to nearly five hundred persons in Richland township. Mr. Henry has met with ovations wherever he has spoken, and is in great demand in all parts of the county. Last night Mr. Henry spoke at Perkins-His allusions to the record of Bynum on the wheat and silver questions were received with hearty applause. His presentation of the tariff question as it affected the farming interests was convincing, and met with approval. The injury to agricultural interests caused by the repeal of the reciprocity feature of the McKinley bill he showed by the fact that Indianapolis millers alone lost an annual market of 150,-600 barrels of flour which have been exported to Cuba. Since the passage of the bill Cuba has placed a duty of $5 per barrel on American flour, and the market is lost. Mr. Henry goes to Marion county this week to renew his canvass there.

Charmed with Griffiths.

Special to the Indianapolis Journa.. GREENSBURG, Ind., Sept. 11 .- The Republicans opened the campaign here tonight at the Rink Opera House. C. W. Fairbanks was billed for the opening speech, but the death of his brother prevented him from filling it, and Hon. John L. Griffiths was sent to fill the appointment. Mr. Griffiths did not arrive until a late hour and hence the attendance was small. Mr. Griffiths made a splendid speech and roasted the leaders of the Democratic party. He quoted largely from the Sentinel to the great amusement of the audience, and with biting sarcasm applied the quotations to the issues of the day. What was lacking in numbers the audience made up in enthusiasm, and his eloquent speech was frequently greeted with applause.

Steele Expects 1,500 Majority.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Ind., Sept. 11 .- Maj. George W. Steele, of Marion, who will succeed Augustus N. Martin as Congressman from this district, was in the city yesterday looking after his political fences, a critical inspection of which convinced him that there was not a rail off nor a gap to close. Like all other Republicans, Major Steele is feeling deicdedly comfortable over the political outlook. Major Steele thought his majority might reach 1,500, but Wabash county Republicans say they will be disappointed if it falls below 2,000. It seems to be going all one way.

Royse Hard at Work.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PLYMOUTH, Ind., Sept. 11 .- Hon. Lemuel W. Royse, Republican candidate for Congress in this, the Thirteenth, district, has been canvassing Marshall county and meeting with great success. Mr. Royse is a fluent speaker and presents the political issues of the day in an acceptable manner. The Republicans expect to carry the district and give Mr. Royse a good ma-

Cooper Is Out of Luck. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Sept. 11.-A large manufacturing establishment in this city, the home of Congressman Cooper, to-night discharged a large force of men, mostly men with families, for lack of work. This is the second reduction of forces since Congressman Cooper opened the campaign here on Labor day.

CHARGED WITH COUNTERFEITING. Mississippl's Governor and Treasurer

Appear in Court. JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 11.-Gov. J. M. Stone and State Treasurer J. J. Evans appeared before United States Commissioner Modely this morning to answer to the charge of counterfeiting preferred against them by Special Agent W. J. Burns, of the government secret service, for printing $200,000 in State warrants in imitation of United States currency. Governor Stone and Treasurer Evans waived examination were released on their own recognizance to appear at the November term of the United States District Court. District Attorney Lee, in compliance with instructions from Attorney-general Olney, called on Governor Stone and requested him to turn over to him the plates from which the warrants were printed for use as evidence against the Western Bank Note Company, which made the plates. The request was complied with and a receipt was taken for the plates, with the understanding that all are to be returned to the Treasurer of Mississippi at the conclusion of the trial.

Cheney and Holmes. CHICAGO, Sept. 11.-Warrants were issued to-day for the arrest of President C. C. Cheney, of the Western Bank Note Company, and John Holmes of the same company. The two agreed to appear vol-untarily and give bail for $5,000 each to appear in St. Louis. Nov. 5. The charge is the same as that preferred against the Governor, Auditor and Treasurer of Mississippi, printing bills in the similitude of the currency of the United States.

Traveling Engineers. DENVER, Col., Sept. 11.—The second annual convention of the Traveling Engineers' Association begun here to-day, with President C. B. Conger, of the Chicago & West Michigan and the Detroit, Lansing & Northern railroads in the chair. The entire morning session was taken up with the discussion of a report on "The True and False Economy in Caring for and the Safe Handling of the Air Brake Under All Circumstances," and when examining firemen for promotion how much knowledge of the air brake is necessary for him to have to be considered fully competent to take a train

A QUAKER SENSATION

DR. DOUGAN CLARK, OF EARLHAM, TO FIGURE IN A HERESY CASE.

Peru's Rustic Midway Plaisance Open -Edinburg Machine Works Fail -Rev. Lewis Set Right.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., Sept. 11 .- The Western Quakers, in the opinion of the Quaker yearly meetings in Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore, have always been "fast," as the conservative Friends say, and the spirit of advance this year in the Ohio Yearly Meeting was beyond all others. Its influence has reached Indiana Yearly Meeting, which is soon to convene at Richmond and there is a prospect that a sensationl case of heresy will then be reached affecting Dr. Dougan Clark, who is a professor in the theological school at Earlham College, and probably the most learned minister professing the Quaker faith in the West. The case is likely to reach the importance, among Friends, of the Briggs case in the Presbyterian church. The controversy is over the right of baptism, which George Fox taught is of the spirit and not of water. But Dr. Clark has permitted himself to be baptized. The rite was administered at a recent meeting in Damascus, O., where ten other Quakers were baptized at the same time, snowing a strong tendency to the innovation in the Quaker church. The duty of water baptism was first held in the Ohio Yearly Meeting by the late David B. Updergraph, a man of strong convictions and great ability as a speaker and preacher. His brother was the former well-known Congressman from that district. Dr. Clark and he were closely united in friendship and church fellowship, and by this late departure from his early training, Dr. Clark shows that his friend Updergraph's influence is still very strong. When asked for the reason of accepting the divine origin and duty of water baptism, Dr. Clark said to a prominent Friend of this city:

"I was forced to take the rite of baptism after years of prayer and struggling over the question. I felt that there was no other way left for me to do but to exercise the liberty and right of conscience that I feel the religion of the Society of Friends concedes to all its members. Our Yearly Meeting (meaning the Richmond body) puts no gag in practice on the right to be baptized with water if it be a matter of conscience.

Earlham College has begun its fall term, but things are not in good shape for the theological course. The Richmond Friends were shocked when they heard that their favorite preacher had been baptized with water and the local meetings have ap-pointed a committee to deal with the aleged heretic. The religious services over which Dr. Clark presided have passed into other hands and though he still attends and is at liberty to speak, the elders in charge have practically relegated him to the rear. Announcements of those who will be present at such and such meetings, which is the Quaker way of stating that the sermon will be delivered by the minster named, no longer include the name of Dougan Clark. The congregation, it is said, has a majority in favor of Dr. Clark and there was a storm of indignation last "first day" after it became apparent that influences were at work to remove Dr. Clark from a position of fellowship and influence in Earlham College. The members stood about in groups and Timothy Nicholson and other elders who led the anti-Clark movement, were censured for their course. Dr. Clark is, personally, a man of the highest character and ministers of other denominations in Richmond esteem him as one of the ablest preachers in the State. He has been preaching for a score of years and for many years was a member of the faculty of Earlham College. He is as well known throughout the

His Friends Think the Report of His Conference Speech Misleading.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 11 .- Friends of Rev. Allen Lewis state that the report of the conference proceedings last Sunday, published in the Indianapolis Journal, which attributed to Rev. Lewis the expression, "Democratic party should be blown to hell with dynamite," is incorrect. Mr. Lewis made no reference to political parties. He was speaking on the report of the temperance committee of the conference, and characterized the report of the committee as being "Too thin." He added: "If I had my way about it I would put dynamite and powder and lead enough in that report to blow the business and all parties in league with it to an endless

ONE OF PENNINGTON'S BUBBLES. $100,000 Foundry at Edinburg Assigns for $16,000.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EDINBURG, Ind., Sept. 11.-The Edinourg Foundry and Machine Company made an assignment yesterday. W. Thelkeld has been appointed assignee, giving bond for $59,000. The indebtedness amounts to $16,-000, and its assets consist of the plant, which cost the stockholders more than $100,000. This firm also holds $20,000 in Mt. Carmel, Ill., bonds, now due and being contested in the United States Court on technical grounds. E. J. Pennington, of air-ship notoriety, was the prime mover in the establishment of the foundry here, and also a foundry at Mt. Carmel, and these bonds were given by the Mt. Carmel parties to pay Penning-ton's indebtedness here.

PERU STREET FAIR.

Broadway Turned Into a Rustic Midway Plaisance. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., Sept. 11.-Peru entertains the world this week, and her streets are being thronged by thousands. The attraction is a grand street fair. The street fair is a comparatively new thing in the way of public amusement, Peru being one of the first in this State to give one. The entire length of Broadway, from Canal street to the depot, is lined with booths placed on the outer edge of the sidewalks. In the middle of the street, the entire length, and on each corner of all streets intersecting, are placed large tents, in which are the various exhibits, such as cattle, sheep, swine and poultry. At the corner of Fifth and Broadway the large tents contain the cattle of John Miller, who drew thirty-six first premiums at the world's fair. From one end to the other on all the principal streets of the city a profusion of bunting, flags and countless attractions continually greet the eye. The streets are engiven over to foot passengers, all teams being shut off. There are practically four sidewalks, two of them being the sidewalks proper and the other two on the sides of the booths facing the streets, thus forming a rustic Midway Plaisance. Bands, uniform drills, bicycle and horse races, balloon ascensions, rope walking and other attractions are the features. The fair proper will last until Saturday afternoon, closing with a baby show. Wednesday will be drill day, Thursday band day, and with zouave and other drill features. Every line of local industry is exhibited.

Isaac Loveless Hale at Ninety-Six. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PETERSBURG, Ind., Sept. 11.-Isaac Loveless, in Madison township, is ninetyeight years old, the oldest man in Pike county. He was born in North Carolina in 1796 and came to Indiana in 1810. At that time Petersburg contained only one building. Mr. Loveless has grand, greatgrand and great-great-grand children living. His first ballot was cast for J. Q. Adams in 1824 for the presidency. He was always a Whig and then a Republican. He enjoys very good health for a man of his age, and says he will celebrate his century of years in 1896 by voting for the next President, who, he firmly believes, will be a Republican.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 11 .- James Parlan and John D. Richardson, of Lafayette, handed in equal bids for street improvements. Mayor Justice appointed Dr. S. S. Washburn to represent Mr. Parlan and Dr. E. V. Burt, both councilmen, to represent Mr. Richardson. Washburn desired to pull straws to settle the question, but Burt insisted on matching dollars. Wash-burn agreed to this, on condition that it was to be two out of three trials. All the preliminaries being arranged, Burt produced the dollar and Washburn lost. The work was accordingly awarded to Mr. Richardson.

Another Big Tin-Plate Plant.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 11.-The tin-plate industry, made possible in America by the provisions of the McKinley bill, is now attracting the attention of Anderson capitalists. The location of a big twelve-mill factory in North Anderson is now practically assured. Mayor M. M. Dunlap, ex-Mayor John H. Terhune, C. L. Henry, John L. Forkner, W. C. Prather and A. I. Makepeace are representing the citizens in the negotiations pending its location. The fac-tory will operate with four hundred hands. They ask a factory site, gas and $20,000.

Mrs. Dulcina Town Sprague Dead. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Sept. 11.-Mrs. Dulcina Town Sprague, of this city, died suddenly at Benton Harbor this morning. For several years she had been a sufferer from asthma and had gone north for her health. Her death was entirely unexpected. She was the widow of the late Jasper H. Sprague, who for years occupied a prominent place in the history of the county. She leaves two children, Mrs. Hattie Robins, of this city, and Charles H. Sprauge, formerly connected with the newspapers of this city.

Shot in a Saloon.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BRAZIL, Ind., Sept. 11 .- A serious affray occurred at Asherville last night which may result fatally to at least one of the participants. A crowd of toughs gathered in George Golding's saloon and a general fight was precipitated, in which many were more or less injured. Golding was severely beaten up, and in self-defense drew a revolver and began firing on the crowd. William Curtis received probably a fatal bullet wound just above the heart. No armosts have been made rests have been made.

Sad Interruption of a Prize Fight. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. A crowd of sports was present and both men were in the ring ready for business, when a physician entered and gave O'Connor a note stating that his child was dying. Instantly the pugulist burst into tears and the fight was postponed Loomis Held Without Bail.

special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., Sept. 11.-Horace Loomis, for the assassination of his cousin, James Gregory, was bound over to court to-day without bail. Fifty-eight of his neighbors testified that he was not insane at the time of the murder of his wealthy bachelor cousin. The unrecorded papers standing between Loomis and Gregory's property are still missing, and it is believed they furnish the motive for the crime.

Mrs. Miller Fatally Burned. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BRAZIL, Ind., Sept. 11.-Mrs. William Miller this evening was pouring coal oil in the stove when the fuel ignited, making a fearful explosion, enveloping her in flames. Her cries for help were not responded to for a short time and when neighbors reached her every stitch of clothing was burned from her body and her flesh was burned to a crisp. She cannot recover.

LAPLANDERS IN ALASKA.

Arrival at Port Clarence of Chellman's Colony of Esquimaux.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 11 .- Word has been received here of the safe arrival at Port Clarence, Alaska, of William Chellman, of this city, and his party of Lapland Esquimaux. Last year he was commissioned by the Alaskan commissioner of education at Washington to go to Lapland for the purpose of bringing a colony of the natives to the American Arctic dominion, with the view of teaching the less civilized Alaskans the domestic arts of northern Europe, where the reindeer is bred and made or great commercial value. Hitherto the Alaskan Esquimaux have been totally destitute of this source of wealth and ignorant of the methods of the natives of like latitudes in the eastern hemisphere. The fourteen families which have been colonized under the direction of Mr. Chellman will try to instruct the American subjects in the culture and uses of the reindeer, and thereby increase their sources of wealth and, if possible, improve their social and in-tellectual condition.

EXPLOSION IN A MINE.

Gas Ignited by a Naked Lamp and Several Men Mangled.

ASHLAND, Pa., Sept. 11 .- A terrible explosion of gas occurred this afternoon in the Centralia colliery mines, operated by L. A. Riley & Co., by which George Elrecta was instantly killed, James Fergarty fatally injured and John Cook seriously burned. Two Hungarian laborers, whose names could not be learned, were also injured. The gas was ignited by Elrecta's naked lamp. His body was frightfully mangled and burned. Fergarty was thrown a distance of thirty feet along the gangway and was injured internally. The damage to the mine is slight. It was believed that several miners were closed in, but they had escaped through an air course.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY REPUDI-ATED IN ALMOST EVERY HAMLET.

Republican Plurality May Reach 38,-000-Only Nine Democrats in the Legislature-Reed's Majority.

AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 11.-It is claimed by Republicans to-night that Governor Cleaves's plurality will reach 38,000, but Mr. Manley's estimate of 37,000 is generally regarded as correct. The greatest surprise is in the complexion of the House, which will have but nine Democrats. Reed's plurallty in the First district is 8,329; Dingley's, in the Second, 8,800; Milliken's in the Third, 8,500, and Boutelle's, in the Fourth, 8,600.

Following is the vote for Governor from 300 towns, compared with the vote cast in the same towns in 1892:

Republican plurality......10,994 The Republicans regard the result of yesterday's election as the biggest victory they have ever achieved in this State. The vote for Governor, which, two years ago, was 130,000, is reduced 15,000 to 20,000, but even with this it is alleged that Cleaves has received 70,000 votes. In every one of the sixteen counties of the State the Democracy has been defeated. Every city in the State has probably gone Republican, which is something phenomenal. The returns show nothing but Republican gains. The returns so far indicate that Johnson (Democrat) will not get over 45,000 votes to 55,000 cast for him two years ago, and this may be reduced by later returns. All four of the Republican Congressmen are elected by largely increased majorities. The Republicans have carried both branches of the Legislature, electing a solid Senate, which two years ago stood thirty Republicans and one Democrat. In the House of Representatives, which consists of 151 members, and which two years ago stood 107 Republican and forty-four Democrats, the Republicans, it is believed,
